Frequently Asked Questions

Everything you need to know about our services

What makes Jigsaw Conferences different from other business travel agents?

As a specialist corporate travel & hotel booking agency, we provide high-quality services while being large enough to manage demanding multi-national organizations but small enough to provide personalized service. We monitor industry rates daily and won't be beaten on price!

What services do you offer at no extra cost?

We offer bespoke programs including business warehousing analysis, technology integration consultation, and unique bolt-on support services to your current corporate programs, all at no extra cost. Our programs are flexible enough to suit both large enterprises and SMEs.

More Frequently Asked Questions

How do you handle urgent travel arrangements?

Our 24/7 support team is always available for urgent situations. While we recommend booking in advance for the best deals, we can handle last-minute arrangements efficiently thanks to our strong relationships with travel partners.

What type of support do you provide during travel?

We offer round-the-clock support through our dedicated team. We monitor your travel arrangements and stay in close contact during your trip. Our emergency support line is available 24/7 for any challenges you might face.

How do you ensure the best rates for your clients?

We have strong negotiation power with major airlines and transport providers, allowing us to secure the best deals. We monitor rates daily and adjust to seasonal changes, always working to find the most cost-effective solutions for our clients.
